”MISTAKES ARE BEAUTIFUL”

Mistakes are beautiful
I believe
Mistakes are beautiful
Everywhere on the world

Sometimes things do not work
Chance works against us Everything works against us Performers never get surprised
By the unexpected

Sometimes things do not work
A musician does a mistake
A musician plays a wrong note
But he catches his mistake
He makes it a touch of nature

Isn’t it the same every day?
Chance may work against us Don’t we get less hurt and
And be more successful
If we don’t give in to our mistakes

OK it’s your mistake you pay for it But you continue

even if punished errors sometimes end up happily

Like Adam and Eve
they were punished Thrown out of paradise

Even holy books say not only mistakes even errors may End up happily

OK you made a mistake but not the failing what matters is the way how you correct it how you recover without hurting yourself

Being able to make a mistake
It is about being able
Being able to make a mistake

How can you recover
How can you renew yourself
How can you make it meaningful

I wonder, how can a mistake be made more beautiful?
